

OAS AT USF BASEBALL

Edgar Robinson throws the first pitch at the USF vs UCF Baseball Game on Saturday May 7.

friends joined USF Athletics as we cheered on the Bulls for the War on I4 series against rivals UCF.

For each game a member of OAS was chosen to throw the first pitch. For Friday's game, Gabriel Montalvo, Outgoing Director of the Business Center, was selected for his leadership over the past 4 years. Edgar Robinson was selected to throw out the first pitch for the Saturday game. Edgar has been at USF for nearly 24 years and had the longest length of service of any OAS employee in attendance. He plans to retire in September.

USF Baseball won the series two to one against UCF adding to USF's goal for the War on I4.

EMPLOYEE PROFILE

ELIZABETH CLIFFORD ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR PLANNING

Elizabeth Clifford has worked within OAS for 11 years. First starting out as a project manager within Design and Construction and now as the Associate Director of Space Management and Analysis for the Planning Department.

In her current role she oversees multiple project managers and helps define the scope and budget for requests that come in from clients across the university. A large part of her job involves being a good listener and talking to end users to find how best to address problems.

Her favorite part of her role is helping to problem solve the various issues that can come up in the planning process for projects. Elizabeth also dually serves as the interim Assistant Director of Design and Construction for USF Health.

Elizabeth has lived in Tampa since 2005. She moved to Florida from Richmond Virginia, and also spent six years in the United Kingdom after college. Outside of work, Elizabeth enjoys spending time outdoors, doing activities such as hiking, walking, and biking.

SAFETY TRAINING PROGRAM

Environmental Health and Safety recently streamlined their training program and began offering most courses online. Take the safety training needs assessment to determine the required trainings needed for your role at USF.

HURRICANE SEASON IS HERE

June 1 marks the start of hurricane season. One of the best ways to prepare is by creating a disaster supplies kit. Floridians can now save on supplies useful during a hurricane. May 28 marked the first day of the 2022 Disaster Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday, which will run for a full two weeks until June 10.

Download the USF Hurricane Guide and learn how to be prepared for potential severe weather. Access the guide at usf.edu/em or usf.edu/administrative-services/emergency-management/documents/hurricane-guide.pdf
