

USF NEXUS INITIATIVE 2019 AWARD RECIPIENT

Jack Wilkins

The Saxophone Legacy Project

Saxophone Legacy is Professor Wilkins' new musical ensemble collaboration with saxophonist/composer Dr. Jeremy Brown, Professor of Music at the University of Calgary. This project involves composing and performing new music that explores the legacy of the saxophone, creating a repertoire of original compositions that incorporate jazz and contemporary concepts. This music will be recorded and premiered in concert in October 2019 at the University of Calgary. Collaboration efforts will continue in 2020, with the production of a CD and concerts in Canada and the US. This award funds travel for Professors Wilkins and Brown and the recording of the new compositions.
