

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- ▣ Nalini Somni from the Department of Student Achievement was nominated anonymously. Her nominator stated that Nalini works with many program areas-- a large portion of her responsibilities is with testing accommodations for students with disabilities. This requires substantial attention to the testing requirements of faculty as well as ADA expectations. Accuracy is paramount in this process and Nalini is exemplary.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- Alice Webb from the Office of Student Programs was nominated by Cindy Greenwood. Ms. Greenwood stated, One of the things I appreciate most about Alice in her role in our office is her ability to maintain great working relationships with offices on campus who we work with regularly (such as the Marshall Center Business Office, Purchasing, Accounts Payable, etc,) as well as our vendors. Our office puts through a huge number of requisitions for payment and Alice always follows up both all parties involved to make sure the payment is being processed and that the vendor knows when to expect that payment. She also serves as a resource to our student employees in the office and helps them as they navigate their daily responsibilities.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- ▣ Betty Fontaine-Alderson from Payroll was nominated by Todd St. John. Mr. St. John states Betty could do her job blind-folded and by herself for months at a time. She knows her job and she gets it done no matter whose there or not. She always assesses issues and gets right to work on what needs to be done.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- ▣ Jennifer Walker from the College of Education was nominated by Vivian Fueyo. Ms. Fueyo stated Jennifer makes everyone who enters the College of Education and with whom she has contact feel welcome. She is courteous, professional, and helpful. She regularly goes out of her way to assist faculty, students, and other staff and is seen as a leader among the staff at our institution.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- ▣ Beverly Pinder from Facilities Planning and Management, Sarasota Campus was nominated by anonymously. Her nominator stated Beverly works on her own to the extent her job demands. She is self motivated and adheres to deadlines. This is evident in the processing of utilities bills and gathering documents to support the monthly financial data. She gets her work done timely and reprioritizes as needed. She exhibits flexibility in the schedule to accommodate the needs of the department.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- ▣ Cynthia Rouse from the Financial Aid Office was nominated anonymously. Her nominator stated the Cynthia is very careful to do her job to perfection. She is conscientious and very thoughtful of the needs of the office. She knows her job and performs her assignments with the same high level of expectation. She has excellent working habits.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

- ▣ Kathy Agne from Administration and Finance was nominated anonymously. Her nominator stated the Kathy's logical approach to life and to her job gives a natural streamlining quality to her work product. In a time when our institution needs money saving ideas, Kathy makes a difference and is more than an important part of our community.

Staff Quiet Quality Awards July 2008

QQA
Award
Recipient

- ▣ Judy Drawdy from the History Department was nominated by Cynthia Melendy. Ms. Melendy stated that Judy has conscientiously maintained a calm and cheerful attitude while succeeding our previous office manager, Sylvia Wood, after she died in February. Judy has not a mentor to learn her new responsibilities and suffered the loss of a dear friend at the same time. All through this she has maintained high quality work with a cheerful attitude.

