Instructions for Updating an Undergraduate Application

When: Use the Application Update Form when requesting changes to your original application information, such as term of entry, major or campus, or when submitting changes in contact information. Be sure to submit this form by the application deadline of the term in which you wish to enroll.

Fee: If you do not update within 12 months from your originally requested term of entry, you must submit a new application with a new application fee. Click on “Apply” on the www.usf.edu/admissions home page to access the application.

Deposits: If you originally applied and were admitted as a first time in college freshman and you paid the $200 admission deposit, please be aware that the deposit is non-refundable and is not transferable to a new term of entry. If updated and admitted as a freshman, you must pay the $200 admission deposit for your new term of entry.

Changes: The complete form must include:
1. Your full legal name, USF ID, phone number and email address.
2. The original and new term of entry.
3. A listing of any additional colleges or universities, dates of attendance, test scores, degrees awarded or courses completed since you attended USF or prior to enrollment at USF that are not included on your original application.
4. If you are a former degree-seeking student, and have attended another institution since leaving USF, you are required to submit your college transcripts before a decision on re-admission can be rendered.

Requirements: USF requires a minimum of 12 transferable credits to be considered for transfer admission. Additionally, admissions requirements differ throughout the USF system and admission to one USF system campus does not guarantee admission to another. Last, if admissions requirements have changed since your original application to USF, you must meet the criteria in effect for the new term of entry requested.

Residency: Submit a new Residency Declaration with supporting documentation to either maintain or update your residency for tuition purposes. The residency declaration may be downloaded from the website at: www.usf.edu/admissions/documents/residency.pdf

Conduct: If there is any change in your response to the conduct questions from your original application, you are required to submit additional information depending on your response to the conduct questions. The conduct form may be downloaded on the website at: www.usf.edu/admissions/documents/conduct-statement.pdf

Change of Major: Please indicate the major you are interested in pursuing. Note that undeclared or undecided is not an option. Admission to USF does not guarantee admission to selective admissions programs of study/high demand majors or programs including, but not limited to, College of Business, College of Education, College of Nursing, or Mass Communications. A list of undergraduate majors can be found at www.ugs.usf.edu/catalog/?category=majors
