

CBCS HUMAN RESOURCES PRESENTS

SUPERVISOR SPEAKER SERIES 2017

This series of workshops is designed to address the most pressing issues that our supervisors face on a daily basis. Attend any or all of these workshops through the year to help develop your skills as a supervisor. Intended audience: Supervisors and staff who provide support to HR functions.

Friday, February 17, 2017

Collective Bargaining Agreements - Learn about the Staff (AFSCME) and GA collective bargaining agreements and how they impact the terms & conditions of employment at USF

Facilitator: Liz Gierbolini

MHC 1503

10:00 - 12:00

Seating is limited. Participants must register via email to

CBCS-HR-Training@usf.edu

Your registration will be confirmed.

In this seminar, Liz Gierbolini will discuss the current Staff (AFSCME) and GA collective bargaining agreements at USF. She'll highlight specific passages within the documents that impact the terms and conditions of employment for those employees covered by the agreements. If you hire and/or supervise Staff or GA 's covered under these CBA's, you'll want to attend this seminar.