REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES DEBATE ON CAMPUS

The eyes of the nation turned to USF this week as NBC came to campus and televised a live debate between the Republican presidential candidates just a week before Florida’s primary. The debate was a tremendous success and a wonderful showcase for the USF System on the national and international stage. In addition to a distinguished audience of local, state and national elected leaders, the UK’s Ambassador to the United States and France’s Ambassador to the US were among the distinguished guests in attendance. The debate was a tremendous success and a wonderful showcase for the USF System on the national and international stage.
