USF Technology Transfer Office

FACTS AND FIGURES

• The prestigious Milken Institute ranked USF 19th out of 200 U.S. universities in research commercialization

• With 114 new utility patents issued during calendar year 2016, USF ranks fifth among American public universities and 11th among universities worldwide in generating new U.S. patents, according to the National Academy of Inventors (NAI) and Intellectual Property Owners Association (IPO).

• USF had 125 patents granted for FY 2017

• During FY 2017, USF executed 122 new license and option agreements, ranking 11th among American public universities and 14th among universities worldwide (comparison to the most recent available published data – AUTM 2016 survey)

• 10 startups in FY 2017 formed based on USF technology

• Seed Tampa Bay – USF awarded a $250,000 U.S. Economic Development Administration grant to invest in startups with high growth potential

• USF was a finalist for Excellence in Technology Commercialization Award for the Deshpande Symposium Awards

• USF was a finalist for the UEDA 2017 Awards of Excellence for Place & Innovation category