First Name Change in Canvas

If you have a first name change request for Canvas, please email IDM-Help@usf.edu from your official USF email account. You do not need to provide personal details for the request, just be clear about the name you want to show in Canvas. This will also change your name in the directory, but it will not change your email address.

TRANS+ 101

This is an introductory handout intended to provide fundamental information

Trans+

The umbrella term for someone who does not identify with the sex or gender assigned to them at birth

Transgender

An individual whose gender identify and assigned sex do not “match”

Transwoman

Someone who was assigned male at birth, and identifies as a woman

Transman

Someone who was assigned female at birth, and identifies as a man

Gender Fluid

Someone whose gender changes

Gender Non-conforming

Individuals whose gender identities or expression is not consistent with conventional standards of femininity or masculinity

Pronouns

You can't assume what someone's pronouns are by looking at them. Correctly using someone's pronouns is essential to respecting an individual's identity. Avoid using the term “preferred pronouns” as pronouns are not a preference.

Pronoun Practice

	Subject	Object	Possessive
He/Him	He laughed	I called him	His name is
She/Her	She laughed	I called her	Her name is
They/Them	They laughed	I called them	Their name is
Ze/zir	Ze laughed	I called zir	Zir name is
