Bachelor of Science in Applied Science/Information Technology

The Information Technology concentration is designed to bridge the gap between computer science and the business use of computers. Emphasis is placed on knowledge-based computer and information technology as well as applications, programming and networking in an era of rapidly changing technology.

Entry-Level Positions

- Clinical Data Manager
- Database Administrator
- Database Architect
- Data Warehousing Specialist
- Information Security Analyst
- Intelligence (Information) Analyst
- Medical Records and Health Information Technician
- Web Administrator
- Web Developer (Information Architect)

Curriculum Information

Applied Science/Information Technology Eight Semester Plan

Positions with a Graduate Degree

- Computer Science Teachers, Postsecondary
- Intelligence (Information) Analyst
- Librarian

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

- American Library Association
- American Society for Information Science and Technology
- Computing Research Association
- Help Desk Institute
- National Center for Women & Information Technology
- The Information Architecture Institute

Where else can I find information on this major?

- Occupational Outlook Handbook
- O*Net Online
- USF Career Services