Bachelor of Arts/Science in Economics/Business

Economics explores both theoretically and empirically issues relating to the production and distribution of resources, goods, and services that arise among households, firms, and governments at both the individual and national levels. The objective of the program is to provide students with the theoretical and empirical skills needed to analyze and interpret economic data. The degree prepares students for a career as an economist in business or government.

Entry-Level Positions
- Actuary
- Bank Manager
- Broker
- Budget Analysts
- Buyer
- Insurance Underwriter
- Loan Officer
- Purchasing Managers

Positions with a Graduate Degree
- Economist
- Operations Research Analyst
- Economics Professor

Professional Organizations and Related Resources
- American Economic Association
- Comparative Economic Studies
- Association for Evolutionary Economics
- Association for Social Economics
- National Association for Business Economics
- National Council on Economic Education
- National Economic Association

Curriculum Information
- Economics-Business Eight Semester Plan

Where else can I find information on this major?
- The Occupational Outlook Handbook
- O*NET Online
- USF Career Services