Bachelor of Arts/Science in Exceptional Student Education

This degree prepares teachers to work with children who have emotional and behavioral disabilities, intellectual disabilities and specific learning disabilities. The objective of the program is to provide students with theory and practicum experiences through integrated courses and practicums in special education.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Entry-Level Positions</th>
<th>Positions with a Graduate Degree</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Special Education Teachers - Kindergarten &amp; Elementary School</td>
<td>Guidance Counselor</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Special Education Teacher - Middle School</td>
<td>Principal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Special Education Teacher - Secondary School</td>
<td>School District Superintendent</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Curriculum Information

Exceptional Student Education Eight Semester Plan

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

National Education Association
Teach For America
Want To Teach
Teachers.net
American Federation of Teachers
American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education
National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education

Where else can I find information on this major?

- Occupational Outlook Handbook
- O*Net Online
- USF Career Services