Faculty Presentations 2013

International

Compiled by the Office of Research/Anchin Center. Corrections or additional information should be submitted to anchincener@usf.edu.

[Back to Top]

National

3. Agosto, V., Karanxha, Z., & Cobb-Roberts, D. (2013, April). Reducing Threats and Obstacles While Maximizing Strengths and Opportunities: Using a SWOT Analysis in Mentoring Women Faculty in Academia. Symposium at the annual meeting of Keeping Our Faculty of Color, Minneapolis, MN.

Compiled by the Office of Research/Anchin Center. Corrections or additional information should be submitted to anchincenter@usf.edu.

74. Fettermann, D. & Rodriguez-Campos, L. (2013, October). Acknowledging differences (to help practitioners select the most appropriate approach) and identifying underlying-similarities (to produce a unifying set of principles for all stakeholder-involvement approaches). TIGBusiness Meeting and Think Tank presented at the 27th annual conference of the American Evaluation Association (AEA). Washington, DC.
76. Fletcher, E. (2013). Signature pedagogies of business and marketing education faculty. National Association for Business Teacher Education. Atlanta, GA.

Compiled by the Office of Research/Anchin Center.
Corrections or additional information should be submitted to anchincenter@usf.edu.

146. Park, S. (2013, November). Improving pre-service teachers’ multimedia design skills through the collaborative multimedia project (CMP) with Area Schools. Paper presented at the International Conference for the Association for Educational Communications and Technology (AECT). Anaheim, CA.

Regional/State/Local

STATE

Compiled by the Office of Research/Anchin Center.
Corrections or additional information should be submitted to anchincenter@usf.edu.

Local

