Information Technology General Minor
15 credits, 2014/2015 Catalog

IT General Minor (15 credit hours) - The IT General Minor is aimed at providing a good understanding of the concepts underlying information technology while letting students choose four elective topics in which to specialize. These electives encompass a wide spectrum of topics such as programming, networking, web design, human computer interaction, and security management.

Required Course:
CGS 3303 IT Concepts (3 hrs.)

Select four courses from the following list:
CDA 3101 Computer Organization for IT (3 credit hours)
CEN 3722 Human-Computer Interfaces for IT (3 credit hours)
CIS 4361 IT Security Management (3 credit hours)
CIS 4412 IT Resource Management (3 credit hours)
COP 3515 Program Design for IT (3 credit hours)
EEL 4782 Computer Information Networks for IT (3 credit hours)
EEL 4854 Data Structures and Algorithms for IT (3 credit hours)
ETG 4931 Special Topics in Technology I (1-5 credit hours) or elective from IT electives list
ETG 4932 Special Topics in Technology II (1-5 credit hours) or elective from IT electives list