Career Com & Strategies

SPC 6934/CRN 95650

This seminar explores the meanings and impact of career on everyday life, from birth to retirement (and other configurations), and in micro-macro (local, national, and global) and in mediated and face-to-face contexts.

We pay particular attention to underrepresented issues, group members, and conceptualizations of work and career as well as the changing work-life landscape.

Modality: In-person
M 2-4:45 PM
