

Spring 2021

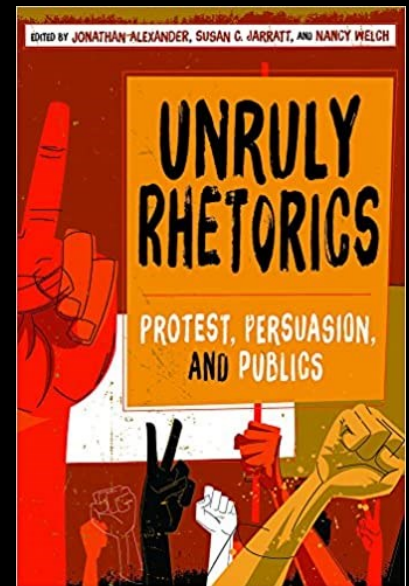

Rhetoric of marginalized communities

ENC 3373.001

CRN 24530

discussion-based online course

- What does it mean to speak from the cultural, social and political margins?
- How do social identity and position shape not only what a person says, but also how they speak or write?
- How are race, gender, sexuality and (dis)ability expressed and negotiated in rhetorical performances?

Required Text:

Unruly Rhetorics, Johnathon Alexander,
et al, Eds.

Additional readings will be provided by instructor

Virtual Meetings:

Mon/Wed

9:30-10:45 am

Instructor:

Kara Larson

kklarson@usf.edu