The theme of the course is water with its complex functions in various historical periods and cultural contexts. We will discuss literary works such as The Little Mermaid, Wide Sargasso Sea, The Tempest, and The Memory of Water, trying to figure out what makes waters and islands so powerful and appealing.

Tampa Campus,
T/R 2:00-3:15 PM
CRN 18052

Instructor:
Anca Garcia