This is an evaluation of your degree process which is based on the number of checked boxes below. Enrollment status determines your financial aid eligibility each semester. Changing your courses after your aid has been paid may result in a reduction in your financial aid. Consult University Scholarships and Financial Aid Services if you have questions.

Please review the DegreeWorks report and notify your advisor if you suspect an omission (e.g. if transfer work is missing) or error (e.g. course is required that you have already completed).

SECOND METHOD:

Select Print from the top right corner of the DegreeWorks webpage.

Click on Destination options and select Save as PDF.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying "s.usf.edu:8443/DashboardServlet/dashboard". The main content area is titled "USF Degreeworks 4.1.6 Production Environment App1" and shows a student's progress report. The report includes a "Degree Progress" section with a progress bar at 82%. Below this is a "Testscores" section with a table that is mostly obscured by a black redaction box. At the bottom of the page, there are "Unmet conditions for this set of requirements" and a list of requirements, some of which are marked as completed with green checkmarks.

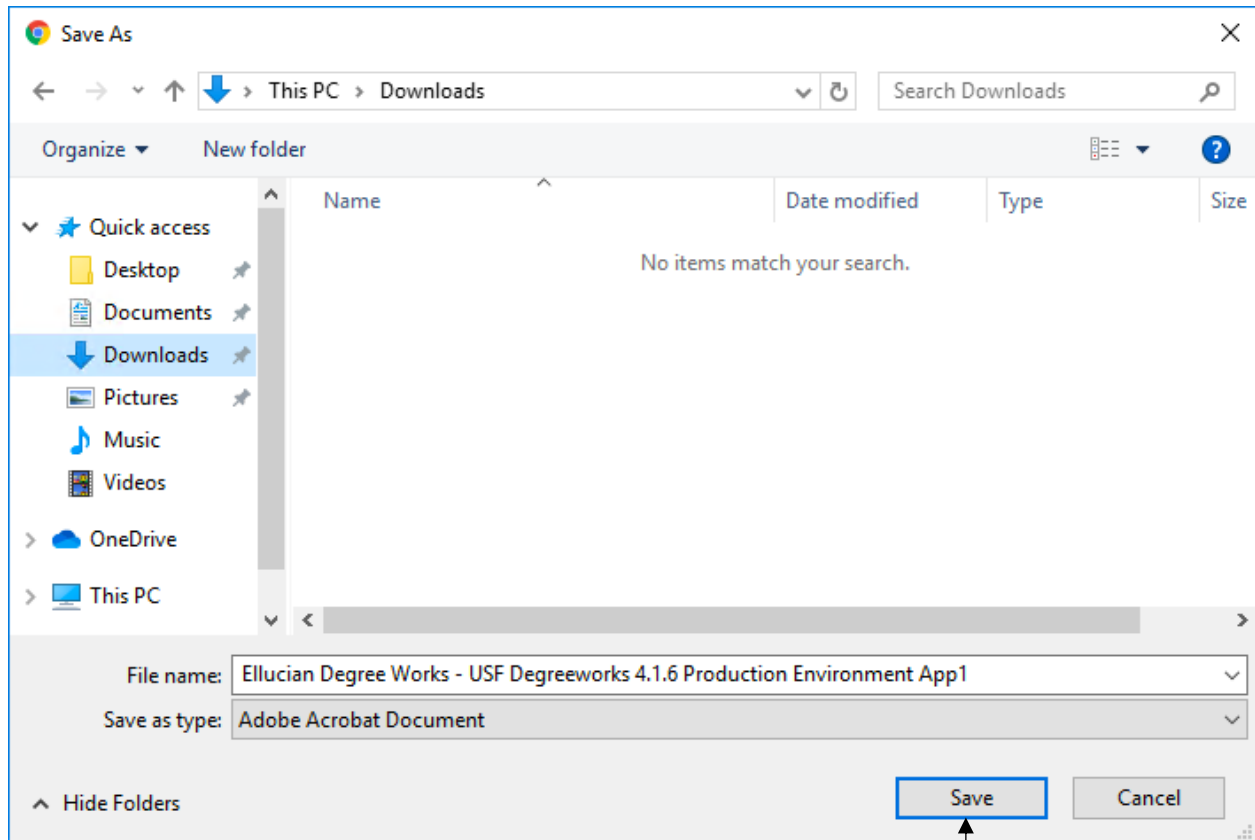

Overlaid on the right side of the browser window is a print menu. The menu includes the following options:

- Print (5 sheets of paper)
- Destination: HP OfficeJet 4650 ser (dropdown menu)
- Pages
- Copies: 1
- Layout: Portrait (dropdown menu)
- Color: Color (dropdown menu)
- More settings (dropdown menu)

The "Destination" dropdown menu is open, showing the following options:

- HP OfficeJet 4650 series 2 (redirected 3)
- Save as PDF (highlighted in blue)
- See more...

At the bottom right of the print menu, there are "Print" and "Cancel" buttons.

Name the file, select where to save the file, and click Save.
