

August, 2014

ANNE ELIZABETH FISHER

New College of Florida/
USF at Sarasota-Manatee
5700 North Tamiami Trail
Sarasota, FL 34243-2197

Work:(941) 487-4254
Email: fisher@ncf.edu , fisher@sar.usf.edu

EDUCATION

1979 B. A. State University of New York at Buffalo (Psychology), summa cum laude.
1881 M. A. The University of Iowa (Psychology), A.P.A. approved.
1985 Ph.D. The University of Iowa (Clinical Psychology), A.P.A. approved.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

1987 New York State Licensure as Psychologist - #9150 (inactive).
1989 National Register of Health Service Providers in Psychology.
1989 Florida State Licensure as Psychologist - #4210.
1991 Expert Witness/Forensic Evaluator Training
1998 Critical Incident Stress Management Training
2009 Recognizing and Responding to Suicidal Crises

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1993-Present Program Director, Counseling and Wellness Center,
New College of Florida /University of South Florida-
Sarasota/Manatee, Sarasota, FL

- Administrative officer for Counseling Center, Health Services Center, Fitness Center (1999-present), Victim's Advocacy Program (1993- present), Disability Services (2005-present) and Career Center (1994-1999).
- Provided psychological services and outreach programming.
- Supervised postdoctoral fellows and practicum students, establishing programs for the campus.
- Established Health and Career Centers for student body.
- Established campus Employee Assistance Program.
- Established Victim Advocacy Program for campus.
- Provided a liaison between Center and other campus units.
- Participated on committees.
- Responsible for budget of over $1,250,000.

1992-1993

Special Assistant to the President for Women's Issues, University of South Florida, Tampa, FL

- Assessed university climate for women, advising president and staff on issues relating to gender and diversity.
- Reviewed policies and procedures of university for gender sensitivity.
Evaluated and referred complaints involving gender to appropriate offices.
- Worked with the university faculty and committees to increase gender awareness.
- Developed and facilitated interactive workshops on campus climate and sexual harassment with deans, chairs, faculty, and staff.
- Presented lectures on women's issues to the community.
- Co-Chair, Women's Awareness Month.
- Represented President at functions as appropriate.

1990-1992

Acting Director, Student Affairs, University of South Florida/New College, Sarasota, Florida

- Chief administrative officer for all Student Affairs functions on campus.
Re-established Office of Student Affairs, directing and supervising student services on campus, including Housing, Food Service, Financial Aid, Counseling, Health Services, Recreation, Programming, Bookstore, Campus Ministry.
- Restructured Student Affairs with a review committee, Campus Dean, and Dean & Warden, followed by a cyclical audit of the Unit.
- Managed Student Affairs budget of approximately $1 million, including food and health service contracts, also accountable officer for student government budgets of approximately $288,000.

1989-1990

Director, Counseling Center, University of South Florida at Sarasota/New College, Sarasota, FL

- Established a counseling center for a student body of approximately 2000.
- Supervised Counseling Center staff.
- Provided individual and group psychotherapy, psychological testing.
- Established emergency on-call system for residential students.
- Responsible for Counseling Center budget.

- Established peer support and assisted in resident assistant programs including training about sexual harassment and assault, eating disorders, interpersonal relationships.
- Initiated consultation and programming on a variety of issues.

1985-1989 Director, Counseling Center, Clinical Psychologist and Assistant Professor of Psychology, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Geneva, NY.

1987-present Clinical Psychologist in limited private practice.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2009-present Assistant Professor of Psychology, New College of Florida, Sarasota, Florida

- Abnormal Psychology, undergraduate
- Human Sexuality, undergraduate

1998-present Adjunct Faculty in Psychology, University of South Florida at Sarasota-Manatee, Sarasota, Florida

- Personality, undergraduate;
- Abnormal Psychology, undergraduate;
- Values and Choices, undergraduate;
- Clinical Psychology and Professional Issues, undergraduate;
- Human Sexuality, undergraduate, graduate.
- Human Growth and Development, graduate.

1986-1989 Assistant Professor of Psychology, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Geneva, New York

- Theories of Psychopathology, undergraduate;
- Clinical Psychology, undergraduate;
- Independent Study and Honors, undergraduate.

GRANT AWARDED

Sexual Violence Prevention Program. Florida Department of Health. 2003-2004

PUBLICATIONS

Fowles, D. C., Fisher, A. E., & Tranel, D. T.(1982) The heart beats to reward. The effect of monetary incentive on heart rate. Psychophysiology, 19, 506-513.

Tranel, D. T., Fisher, A. E., & Fowles, D. C.(1982) Magnitude of incentive effects on heart rate. Psychophysiology, 19, 514-519.

Fisher, A. E. & Campbell, M. S. (2002) Clinical Psychology. In Emener and Richard, I'm a People Person: A Guide to the Helping Professions.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

American Psychological Association (Division 12, Division 29)
American Association of University Counseling Center Directors
American Association for Counseling and Development
Society of the Masterson Institute
American College Health Association
Prescribing Psychologist's Register

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

“Counseling Centers as Allies in Helping Students At Risk”. Presentations at the 20th Anniversary Conference of the Association of Student Judicial Affairs. Clearwater Beach, Florida, February 6, 2008.

“Collaborating with Residential Life in a Post-doctoral Residency Program”. Presentation at the 50th Anniversary Conference of the Association of University and College Counseling Center Directors. South Beach, Florida, November 3, 1999.

“The Development of Psychological Hardiness as an Essential Prevention Component”. Invited Presentation at Challenge 2000- A National Conference on Alcohol and Other Drug Issues in Higher Education. University of Notre Dame, April 8, 1995.