

Harvey Nelsen, Professor

PhD Modern East Asian History
 George Washington University 1972
MA Columbia University
BA University of Nebraska

USF teaching: Graduate courses
 Government and Politics of China, Chinese foreign policy, US
 Intelligence and terrorism.
 Undergraduate courses:
 China, Intro. to International Studies, Senior Seminar,
 International Political Cultures, Intelligence

Publications: The Chinese Military System; Power and Insecurity
The first was a study of civil military relations in China, published in 1977 with a second edition in 1981, (Westview Press). The second book was a study of triangular great power relations—U.S. China and the former USSR. It was published in 1989 by Lynne Rienner Press and later translated into Japanese

Articles published on China topics in China Quarterly, Asian Survey, Current History, Journal of Developing Societies, Christian Science
Monitor, and an article on Korea published in The Atlantic Monthly.
Most recent articles and book chapters on China have been on the topic of “governance.”

Chaired a doctoral defense in Anthropology about 12 years ago and will be chairing another doctoral defense in Communications about February 2005.