Additional Comments:

This form applies to the forthcoming (2017) satellite space for the USF SACD in St. Petersburg, Florida. The City of St. Petersburg is 24 miles to the west of USF. The St Petersburg Urban Design Lab (UDL) will support an advanced design studio, seminars, Master's Project students and faculty work space. Students will rotate between the Tampa campus and the UDL on a voluntary basis. We anticipate students will spend a single semester with the UDL unless their research interests dictate otherwise. Students may commute between USF Tampa and St Petersburg for some courses.
