Canvas Best Practices

Learn how to get started in Canvas and explore what's new and different in this learning management system. We will also discuss best practices in using the software.

Mon., May 5, 11:00-12:00

Wed., May 14, 11:00-12:00

Fri., May 9, 11:00-12:00

Wed., June 11, 11:00-12:00

Wed., June 18, 11:00-12:00

Thurs., June 26, 12:30-1:30

Wed., July 23, 11:00-12:00

Canvas Best Practices II (Advanced)

So you've mastered (or at least understand) the basics of setting up your course(s) in Canvas. Now what? In this hands-on session, you will learn how to use several tools in Canvas including modules, files, and pages to organize your courses following principles of good course design.

Fri., May 9, 12:30-1:30

Thurs., June 26, 2:00-3:00

Canvas on the Go

Learn how to install and use Canvas's mobile (phone and tablet) apps to get more done when you are on the go, including messaging students and giving feedback on assignments using Speedgrader.

Wed., May 21, 2:00-3:00

Tues., June 10, 9:30-10:30

Creating Great Group Assignments

Join us for this discussion about the most common student objections to group work and explore features in Canvas that can be used to facilitate truly cooperative learning experiences that you and your students will enjoy.

Mon., May 12, 12:30-1:30

Tues., July 1, 9:30-10:30

Creating Kindle, eBook, and other Cheap or Free Options for Your Students

From on-demand publishing to electronic books, there are many options for faculty to make material available to students that are low-cost or no cost. Find out what's possible (and what isn't) in this lively discussion.

Thurs., July 31, 9:30-10:30

Wed., Aug. 20, 11:00-12:00

Cultivating a Culture of Academic Integrity

This workshop is designed to familiarize you with Turnitin, USF's new plagiarism detection software in Canvas, and to stimulate discussion about ways faculty can discourage student academic misconduct.

Wed., July 9, 11:00-12:00

Tues., July 22, 9:30-10:30

Designing Rubrics to Enhance Learning

Using rubrics in Canvas can be very useful and is relatively intuitive. In this hands-on workshop, we will explore using rubrics to assess various assignment types, including quizzes and discussions.

Thurs., May 22, 11:00-12:00

Thurs., June 19, 11:00-12:00

Developing an Effective Syllabus

A syllabus provides a basic outline of an academic course, but that isn't all it has to be. With some tweaking, syllabi can be developed in order to supplement and enhance the learning experience in your course, right from the start.

Mon., June 23, 1:00-2:00

Tues., July 29, 1:00-2:00

Flipping the Classroom

Learn how to deliver content via pre-recorded "lectures in a can" through Canvas, which frees up in-class time for case studies, activities, scenarios, role-plays, questions, reviews, and even games.

Thurs., June 12, 11:00-12:00

Thurs., Aug. 21 12:30-1:30

Interactive Teaching Techniques

You may use some interactive techniques in your teaching already, like the "one minute paper" or "think-pair-share." We've got a list of 195 such techniques we'd love to share with you! (and we will want to learn from you what your favorites are).

Mon., July 28, 2:00-3:00

Wed., Aug. 20, 9:30-10:30

Workshops in Summer 2014

Please RSVP here: <http://workshops.etg.usf.edu>

Maximizing Assessment in Canvas

This workshop is designed to show you how to get the most out of Canvas's assessment tools. We will take a more in-depth look at the Speedgrader and explore giving students substantive feedback using media comments.

Thurs., July 17, 2:00-3:00

Mon., July 28, 11:00-12:00

Targeting and Enhancing Student Motivation

Classroom success often depends on student motivation. We will supply you with a toolset for helping to inspire and motivate students in your course content.

Tues., May 27, 9:30-10:30

Thurs., July 31, 11:00-12:00

Un-Lectures: Using PowerPoint Completely Differently

Rather than use PowerPoint to relay information (i.e., the answers), we'll talk about strategies for using it as a platform for questions, and also explore the myriad ways we can turn traditional lectures upside down.

Thurs., May 29, 1:00-2:00

Mon., Aug. 11, 1:00-2:00

Using Technology to Enhance Learner Motivation

In today's classroom, technology has the potential to be a distractor for students. Find out how you can use technology to increase learner motivation using various tools, media, and strategies.

Fri., May 23, 2:30-3:30

Mon., June 16, 1:00-2:00

Using the Canvas Survey Tool to Enhance Learning

Join us as we discuss how to get anonymous student impact data from our Canvas LMS that helps us identify what worked well in our courses and what needs some enhancements.

Fri., June 20, 11:00-12:00

Wed., July 16, 11:00-12:00

Various Ways to Supplement Your Face-to-Face Classes Using Canvas

Now that you know the basics of Canvas, join us as we explore some instructionally effective ways to supplement your face-to-face classes with the Canvas LMS.

Tues., May 6, 11:00-12:00

Thurs., May 15, 11:00-12:00

Fri., June 13, 11:00-12:00

Thurs., June 19, 1:00-2:00

Thurs., July 10, 11:00-12:00

Thurs., July 24, 11:00-12:00

Virtual Synchronicity: Meeting Students Online

Whether you are facilitating portions of your course online or need to meet with an individual student online, using tools like Big Blue Button or Blackboard Collaborate, which are integrated into Canvas, can make your interactions more meaningful and convenient.

Thurs., June 5, 12:30-1:30

Mon., June 23, 2:00-3:00

Participants in ATLE workshops and events receive an annual letter noting their participation for their records and portfolios.

ATLE's free services also include:

- Classroom (peer) observations
- Consultations by phone, email, or appointment
- Consultations in faculty offices (we travel to you)
- Course redesign discussions
- Visits to departmental meetings
- Department/college-specific training upon request
