Welcome to USF  3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Please join Dr. James R. Garey, Vice Provost, Professor & Interim Director of the Florida Institute of Oceanography and Dr. Dwayne Smith, Senior Vice Provost & Dean of the Office of Graduate Studies, for an introduction to the University of South Florida.

Expectations for Regulatory Compliance by Faculty: Maggie Denney, Assistant Director, Title IX & ADA and Deputy Title IX Coordinator, will lead a discussion of the major university, state, and federal regulations with which faculty are expected to comply as a condition of their employment at the University of South Florida. Ms. Denney will also discuss a special set of federal mandates and present a brief overview of faculty expectations concerning the Violence Against Women Act, Title IX, and the Clery Act.

USF Public Safety: Cpl. Chad Hill will be presenting campus safety programs and resources and will outline services provided by the USF Police Department. To ensure the health, safety and security of the USF community, multiple university divisions work collaboratively to improve the quality of life in the community through training, communication, prevention activities and effective response when situations arise.

We will also discuss university policies and procedures regarding students with disabilities, attendance, disruptive students, grading, Florida’s “Sunshine” public records law and an overview of the benefits available to adjuncts.

Teaching Workshops  4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Presented by Sara Friedman - ATLE, Academy for Teaching and Learning

Teaching Workshops: Join us for an introduction to teaching at USF, including important information about semester essentials, syllabus, interactive teaching techniques, classroom management, and creating assessments.

Using Canvas for Face-to-Face Teaching: Learn about the variety of easy-to-use, intuitive features in Canvas designed to make teaching and learning easier. Even if you have previous experience, we recommend that you participate. After the session, you should be able to navigate the interface and use tools such as setting profiles and notifications, uploading files, posting a syllabus, using speedgrader & plagiarism tools, setting home pages and calendars, and creating a basic page with modules and assignments.
