

General Business Certificate for non-business majors

USF's new General Business Certificate is designed exclusively for non-business majors. Perfect for students majoring in mass communications, criminology, psychology, international studies, social work, philosophy, the arts, or political science (or similar majors), this program gives you the business knowledge - without having to pursue a business degree - that will help you land a job!

Typical course sequencing:

CGS 2100	Computers in Business
MAR 3023	Basic Marketing
MAN 3025	Principles of Management
ACG 3074	Accounting for Non-Business Majors
FIN 3005	Finance for Non-Business Majors

Admission requires an application to the Muma College of Business. Learn more at business.usf.edu in the undergrad programs section.
