

Bachelor of Arts in Criminology

The major in Criminology provides students with an in-depth exposure to all facets of the criminal justice system including law enforcement, detention, the judiciary, corrections, and probation and parole. The program concentrates on achieving balance in the above aspects of the system from the perspective of the criminal justice professional, the offender, and society. The program provides a solid background in the theory, issues and methodology comprising Criminology.

Entry-Level Positions

Compliance Manager

Probation Officers and Correctional Treatment Specialists

Security Manager

Social and Human Service Assistants

Curriculum Information

Criminology Eight Semester Plan

Positions with a Graduate Degree

Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement Teachers - Postsecondary

Lawyer

Social Worker

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

American Sociological Association

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Population Association of America

Social Science Research Council

The American Society of Criminology

US Department of Justice

Where else can I find information on this major?

Occupational Outlook Handbook

O*Net Online

USF Career Services