Get a Sneak Peek of Our Events

While our Bulls Connect Career Fairs remain the best opportunity for you to recruit for your internships and full-time positions, our new virtual events can help you connect with our students throughout the semester.

Since you subscribe to our newsletter, we wanted to give you a sneak peek of our events before we release the full details at Friday's Tune In This Week session.

Types of Events

Virtual Showcase - Share information about your organization's open positions

Industry Insights - Join a panel of representatives from other organizations to discuss the ins and outs of working within your industry

Professional U - Host a career-readiness workshop to help our students prepare to enter the workforce

Ask Me Anything - Answer questions from students and alumni about your career journey post-graduation

Let Your USF Alumni Lead the Charge

While our events are open to any representative from your organization, we've designed some of them with your existing USF talent in mind. Our alumni have special insight into the transition from our classrooms to your offices, so letting them represent your organization could help "herd" our current Bulls into your talent pipelines!

Requesting an Event

We'll start accepting event requests after our Tune In This Week session on Friday. To request a session, you'll complete a quick form that provides our team with information about your preferred event type, targeted student groups, and overall goals for the event. Once we receive your request, we'll get in touch to finalize your plans.
