

Bachelor of Arts in Geography

The Geography degree is designed to improve students' understanding of the world in which they live. It is also tailored to improve the analytical skills necessary to interpret real-world problems in the cultural and physical environment. The degree prepares students for employment in business, government, planning, foreign service, mapping, industrial location, marketing research, resource evaluation, environmental analysis, transportation, and other fields.

Entry-Level Positions

Cartographer

Conservation Manager

Management Analyst

Surveyor

Curriculum Information

Geography Eight Semester Plan

Positions with a Graduate Degree

College/University Faculty

Location Analyst

Urban Planner

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

The American Geographical Society

Association of American Geographers

National Council for Geographic Education

National Geographic

American Congress on Surveying & Mapping/

National Society of Professional Surveyors

Where else can I find information ?

Occupational Outlook Handbook

O*Net Online

USF Career Services