

Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Classical Civilizations

Interdisciplinary Classical Civilizations is a broad-based area study encompassing the literature, history, linguistics, art and archaeology, philosophy, and religion of Greece, Rome and the Near East from pre-history to late antiquity. For centuries, the study of these vibrant societies has been recognized as essential to a proper understanding of our own culture and, recently, there has been a renewed recognition of the skills such study develops.

Entry-Level Positions

Archivists

Editor

Manager

Social Science Research Assistant

Teacher - Secondary

Technical Writer

Translator

Curriculum Information

Interdisciplinary Classical Civilizations Eight Semester Plan

Positions with a Graduate Degree

Anthropologists and Archeologists

Antiquities Archivist

Historian

Lawyer

Librarian

Postsecondary Education Administrators

Professor

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

The Classical Association

The American Classical League

American Philological Association

The American School of Classical Studies in Athens

The Archaeological Institute of America

Where else can I find information ?

Occupational Outlook Handbook

O*Net Online

USF Career Services