

Bachelor of Arts in International Studies

International Studies is designed to provide a general background in world affairs with a special emphasis on political and economic aspects. Courses focus on both general topics (such as conflict, globalization, terrorism, human rights) and area or country studies (the Middle East, Russia, China, Japan, Latin America are among the current offerings).

Entry-Level Positions

Interpreter/Translator

Public Relations Specialist

Regulatory Affairs Specialist

Social/Community Service Managers

Trade Specialist

International Banker

Import/Export Coordinator

Program Manager/Specialist

Intelligence & Market Research Analyst

Foreign News Correspondent

Curriculum Information

International Studies Eight Semester Plan

Positions with a Graduate Degree

Area, Ethnic, & Cultural Studies Teachers, Postsecondary

International Lawyer

International Relations Professor

Political Scientist

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

National Association of International Educators

American Foreign Service Association

US Department of State

International Studies Association

USAJobs

CIA

Homeland Security

United Nations

What Can I Do With a Degree in International Studies

Where else can I find information ?

Occupational Outlook Handbook

O*Net Online

USF Career Services