

Bachelor of Science in Nursing—Upper Division

Roles of the baccalaureate prepared nurse include provider of care, designer/manager/coordinator of care, and member of a profession. Students in the upper division sequence complete their program of studies in six semesters. Upon completion they are eligible to take the NCLEX RN licensure examination.

Entry-Level Positions

Health Service Manager

Licensed Vocational Nurse

Registered Nurse

Curriculum Information

Nursing - Upper Division Eight Semester Plan

Positions with a Graduate Degree

Family and General Practitioners

Nursing Instructors and Teachers, Postsecondary

Nurse Practitioner

Physician's Assistant

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

American Academy of Nurse Practitioners

American Association of Nurse Anesthetists

American Nurses Association

American Association of Colleges of Nursing

Discover Nursing

ExploreHealthCareers.org

Nurse Without Borders

Where else can I find information on this major?

Occupational Outlook Handbook

O\*NET Online

USF Career Services