

Bachelor of Arts/Science in Accounting

The objective of the baccalaureate degree program in accountancy is to provide students with accounting and business knowledge that will serve as a basis for careers in industry, government, non-profit organizations and public accountancy. The baccalaureate program also prepares students for entry into the Master of Accountancy (M.Acc.) professional degree program.

Entry-Level Positions

Accountant

Accounting Clerk

Auditor

Bookkeeper

Business Credit/Loan Administrator

Collection Manager

Compensation and Benefits Manager

Consolidation Manager

Investment Banker

Production Manager

Tax Preparer

Curriculum Information

Eight Semester Plans

(Look up major and academic year)

Positions with a Graduate Degree

Bank Officer

Business Teachers, Postsecondary

Controller

Management Analyst

Treasury Manager

Professional Organizations and Related Resources

Careers in Accounting

Accounting & Auditing Careers

American Institute of CPAs

Masters in Accounting

CPA Directory

SmartPros-Accounting

National Society of Accountants

Where else can I find information?

O*Net Online

Occupational Outlook Handbook

USF Career Services