

ENGAGE BEHAVIORAL HEALTH: FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Opportunity:

- USF approved paid practicum experience
- Growth in the field of ABA as a RBT, BCaBA, or BCBA
- Development of clinical repertoires including continuing education and opportunities for research experience

Benefits:

- Monthly or semester based stipend during graduate training
- Automatic salary position post-graduate training
- Opportunity to fast track within the organizational hierarchy
- Potential ownership through expansion in a new geographic location of the organization

Contact:

- If you would like additional information and/or are interested in the fellowship application process, please contact Nicole Hanney, PhD, BCBA-D, Clinical Director at Engage Behavioral Health, at nhanney@ebhealthgroup.com.