

Earn a Graduate Certificate in

Children's Mental Health

Providing specialized training and skill development to professionals interested in working with children with mental and behavioral health challenges and their families.

15 Credit Hours

Fully Online!

Contact:

Cathy Sowell, LCSW
csowell@usf.edu

— Graduate Certificate —

Children's Mental Health

Admission Requirements:

- Applicants must have a Bachelor's Degree in a field related to human services (e.g. social work, sociology, psychology, public health, nursing, education, etc.).

Core Courses (9 credits):

The following three core courses are required.

- Child and Adolescent Behavioral Health
- Creating Cultural Competence in Behavioral Health
- Family-Centered Interdisciplinary Practice

Elective Course (6 credits):

 Select two.

- Program Development & Implementation in Children's Mental Health
- Applied Leadership in Children's Behavioral Health
- Wraparound Interventions and the System of Care
- Co-Occurring Mental & Substance Use Disorders in Child & Adolescent Behavioral Health
- Mental Health Informatics
- The Business of Behavioral Health
- Special Topics in Planning, Evaluation, & Accountability
- Community-Based Behavioral Health Interventions for Culturally Diverse Youth
- Epidemiology of Mental Disorders
- Independent Studies in Mental Health