

Paid Practicum and Internship

40 Fountain Street
Providence, RI 02903

RI VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION INTERNSHIP PROGRAM:

VRC student intern programs offer paid practicum and internship opportunities, as well as allowing graduate students to participate in vocational rehabilitation counselor activities, assignments, and situations.

Candidates will receive compensation for their work, all the while fulfilling needed observations and field experience requirements for their Vocational Rehabilitation program.

Upon successful completion of the internship, graduating candidates may have an opportunity to apply for full-time employment with RI's Office of Rehabilitation Services.
