

Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling 2018-2019 Academic Year Outcomes Report

The Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling (RMHC) program is accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), until 2022. The Program offers a master's degree in rehabilitation and mental health counseling and two graduate certificates. The two certificates offered are: (1) Addictions and Substance Abuse Counseling; and (2) Marriage and Family Therapy.

The mission of the Program is to promote quality services for individuals with differences in abilities and to help the state meet its human service needs in the areas of rehabilitation and mental health through teaching, research and service. The Program offers both a non-thesis and thesis program. Successful completion of a comprehensive examination to assess student learning across all CACREP knowledge domains covered in the standards is required of all students before the degree is awarded.

In keeping with CACREP standards, the program fosters continuing public awareness and confidence about academic quality. Information below addresses these standards:
