Friendly Reminders:

1. Plan ahead. If you are going to apply for a scholarship, start early. If you need to submit a recommendation, be sure to give your recommender plenty of time.
2. Apply for as many as you can. It can't hurt.
3. This is not a comprehensive list. If you come across other scholarship opportunities, please let Betsy Davis (edavis18@usf.edu) know and she will update the database.
4. If you win, please let us know. We want to celebrate you!
5. Good luck!

- maintain a grade point average of 3.0 or above within the graduate program.

Information:

The RSA awards grants to colleges and universities for providing scholarship assistance to students interested in pursuing careers in rehabilitation, such as rehabilitation counseling, undergraduate education in the rehabilitation services and rehabilitation technology. Students who receive scholarships under this program are required to "pay back" their scholarship through employment in support of the public rehabilitation program. Typical settings include State vocational rehabilitation agencies or agencies or organizations that have service arrangements with State vocational rehabilitation agencies; or Federally-funded centers for independent living. The student is expected to work two years in such settings for every year of full-time scholarship support received. Although this is the primary condition for a scholarship, there are other conditions.
