

April 14, 2021

12:00 PM

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA

College of Behavioral &
Community Sciences
Child & Family Studies

— 2021 Speaker Series on Race & Counseling —

Family Matriarch: The African American Woman

An in-depth examination of the cross familial and societal roles the African American woman struggles for balance, acceptance, and ease. A discussion on how the interceptions of the African American woman's life can implicate therapeutic gains and outcomes.

About Alyssa Scott, CRC, LMHC

Alyssa Scott has contributed over 15 years in the Mental Health and Rehabilitation field within the Brevard and Hillsborough County public school system as a Special Education Inclusion Coordinator, Geriatric-Vocational & Recreational Counselor at a Managed Care Center, Rehabilitation Counselor in the State sector, and presently works at the James A. Haley VA Hospital as a Vocational Rehabilitation Supervisor. Alyssa earned a Master of Arts degree in Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling in 2012 from the University of South Florida. Since graduating, she has earned National Certification as a Rehabilitation Counselor and State Licensure as a Mental Health Counselor. While she utilizes her CRC daily, she practices her licensure within her private practice recently established in 2020. Outside of her profession, Alyssa is the proud wife of an Army Veteran and has a 5-year-old daughter.

