

The Department of Criminology of the University of South Florida invites applications for one nine-month tenure-track position to begin August 7, 2019. Rank is at the Assistant Professor level. To be eligible for consideration, applicants must possess Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or a related social science discipline by the time of appointment. Area of specialization is open, but preference will be given to those applicants who demonstrate an ability to make a significant contribution to the department's doctoral program. Teaching experience is preferred, and applicants should show a strong record of research productivity commensurate with rank, and grant experience or grant potential. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. Salary is competitive and negotiable commensurate with qualifications. Review of applications will begin October 23, 2018 and will continue until position is filled. USF is one of three preeminent research universities in Florida and the Department is a nationally ranked criminology program. To learn more about the department, please visit our web site at: <http://criminology.usf.edu> or contact Dr. Lyndsay Boggess at lboggess@usf.edu. Applicants must apply online at <http://www.usf.edu/work-at-usf/careers/> via Job ID 18604.