

CJMHTA TAC Facilitator Bios

Abby Shockley, MPH, Director, CJMHTA TAC

Abby is the Director of the Criminal Justice, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse Technical Assistance Center (CJMHTA TAC). Prior to joining the TAC, Abby served as a Senior Policy Analyst with the New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services where her work focused on several of the Department's substance use disorder (SUD) initiatives, including substance use disorder policy analysis and development and expansion and oversight of Medicaid coverage for SUD. During her time with NH DHHS, she also served as the Project Director for implementation of the State Opioid Response grant, including oversight of program development for delivering behavioral health services and expanding the use of Medication Assisted Treatment for individuals involved in NH's criminal justice system. Abby earned her B.S. in Health Sciences from Boston University and her Master's in Public Health from USF. She is a board member of the Hillsborough Recovery Coalition and an adjunct faculty member for the USF Department of Mental Health Law & Policy.

Katelind Melendez, M.A., M.S., Assistant Program Director, CJMHTA TAC

Katelind is the Assistant Program Director at the Criminal Justice, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse Technical Assistance Center (CJMHTA TAC). At the CJMHTA TAC, she is responsible for facilitation of technical assistance events for the DCF Reinvestment Grant Program, as well as technical report writing, for grant program reports written to inform the DCF and the Florida Legislature. She earned a Master of Arts in Criminology and a Master of Science in Child and Adolescent Behavioral Health at USF. Since starting at the CJMHTA TAC, Katelind has assisted in facilitation of over 17 Sequential Intercept Mappings across the state, which promote system-wide changes in the behavioral health and criminal and juvenile justice systems.

Beth Holland, MBA, Learning and Development Facilitator, CJMHTA TAC

Mary (Beth) Holland is the Learning and Development Facilitator at the Criminal Justice, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse Technical Assistance Center (CJMHTA TAC). Previously, she was in the multifamily housing industry as a social media and reputation manager for 10 years. Beth holds her Master's in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing from Sullivan University. Her role is responsible for increasing the TAC's capacity for grantee communications, information dissemination, and development and implementation of a learning collaborative to enhance peer to peer learning among grantees across the State of Florida.

Eryka Marshall, M.A, LMHC, CJMHTA TAC Subject Matter Expert

Eryka is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor with over 10 years' experience of working with youth and families in community settings. Ms. Marshall is a clinician with the Tampa Housing Authority Youth and Family Services Program, a prevention program funded by the Department of Juvenile Justice. She earned a Masters in Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling, with a certificate in Marriage and Family Therapy at USF. Ms. Marshall also works in the Department of Mental Health Law & Policy on various research projects and as a guest lecturer in Behavioral Healthcare courses