

Name:

U:

ESSAY 1

The written statement should be approximately 500 words. Please include: how your life experiences, including those relating to human diversity, have led to an interest in the social work field; your reasons and readiness for pursuing a graduate degree; and an assessment of your strengths and weaknesses. In addition, you should describe any experiences that you have had either voluntary or paid, in working with people.