OLLI Connects!

Blogs have been around for a while. Most of us in OLLI have been around longer. As we thought about how to celebrate 25 years of OLLI-USF, it made perfect sense for us to create a blog to highlight member creativity. And so OLLI Connects was launched in the fall of 2018. We were often unsure of how to get from where we were to where we wanted to be. But persistence paid off, and we successfully published our first blog posts on August 31, introducing you to Fannie Farmer, leading you through a night market in Ybor City, then taking you all the way to Africa. Since then we’ve tried to add at least one new post every week, on subjects as diverse as wood carving, Civil War battlefields and iPhone-Hearing Aid Connections along the way.

Our focus was—and is—sharing. Sharing stories and experiences from the OLLI community. We’re not looking to win Pulitzer prizes for scintillating prose. We want OLLI members to tell their own stories in their own words. As though it were a conversation among friends. (We won’t say “old” friends. That would be tacky, wouldn’t it?)

We also know that not everyone shares their experiences in words. Often an image that captures a place, a time, or an emotion is the most effective way to share. We are building—a Gallery page that will be primarily images with the opportunity to provide some textual context but no requirement to do so.

We’ve published several articles now. We have several more lined up. But the story we really want is your story. The photographs we really want are your photographs.

Now it’s possible, just barely possible, that you haven’t seen the blog yet. That’s easy to fix. On your phone, tablet or PC, just browse to ollicconnects.org. No login to slog through. No password required. Just great stories and photos from your fellow OLLI-USF members. It’s so easy a Millennial could do it!

While the stories you see are by OLLI members, the blog is not just for OLLI members. We want to spread the word. We want the world to know we’re here! We want you to have more lifelong learners to get acquainted with. So, once you’ve found us, feel free to share us with your friends and family.

If you have questions about OLLI Connects; if you have a story or a photo for us*; or even if you just have an idea for a post but not the completed article, get in touch with Cath Mason or Al Carlson at connectsolli25@gmail.com. We want to help you bring your story to life.

*You’ll find submission guidelines for stories on the Welcome page of our blog.

OLLI Goes to the Opera 2019
Experience two glorious, classic operas, part of Opera Tampa’s season, each preceded by an insightful lecture, all for one very special price! Beryl Byles’ lectures are exclusive to OLLI-USF and will provide background and context preceding the two Sunday matinee performances.

Georges Bizet’s The Pearl Fishers
For sheer transcendent beauty, Bizet’s The Pearl Fishers has few rivals in the operatic repertoire. Bizet transports us to Ceylon, where two devoted friends find themselves in love with the same woman, an entrancingly beautiful priestess, Leïla. A famed duet for tenor and baritone contains a soaring melody that has turned countless opera newcomers into ecstatic fans. The Pearl Fishers demands vocal strength, beauty and elegance to do justice to this sweepingly romantic drama. Sung in French with English translations projected above the stage. Jorge Parodi will lead an international cast along with the Opera Tampa Orchestra and Chorus.
Sun., 3/17 * 12:45 p.m. lecture - 2:00 p.m. curtain * Ferguson Hall

AND —

Giacomo Puccini’s La Bohème
La Bohème defined a love-and-friendship genre that paved the way for RENT, Friends, The Breakfast Club and more. Scrambling to make ends meet, the friends and lovers must rely on their wits to get the resources they need to survive. Get your hanky ready for this all-time favorite, full of gorgeous duets and ensemble singing about simple people living the epic adventure of life. La Bohème will be sung in Italian with English translations projected above the stage. Anthony Barrese will lead an international cast along with the Opera Tampa Orchestra and Chorus.
Sun., 4/28 * 12:45 p.m. lecture -2:00 p.m. curtain * Morsani Hall

Both performances for $184 * STRAZ-David A Straz Jr. Center for the Performing Arts * 192XOSTSE0961

OLLI Goes Broadway: Les Misérables
Cameron Mackintosh presents the new production of Alain Boublil and Claude-Michel Schönberg’s Tony Award®-winning musical phenomenon, Les Misérables, direct from an acclaimed two-and-a-half-year return to Broadway.
Set against the backdrop of 19th-century France, Les Misérables tells an unforgettable story of heartbreak, passion and the resilience of the human spirit. Featuring the beloved songs “I Dreamed a Dream,” “On My Own,” “Stars,” “Bring Him Home,” “One Day More” and many more, this epic and uplifting story has become one of the most celebrated musicals in theatrical history. The pre-show lecture provides context for the performance.
Fee: $67 * Tue., 1/15 * 6:30 p.m. lecture – 7:30 p.m. curtain
* Morsani Hall * STRAZ-David A Straz Jr. Center for the Performing Arts * 192XOSTSE0961
REGISTRATION DEADLINE: December 7

OLLI Goes Broadway: The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged)
The unholy drought is over. The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged) returns after a 14-year absence. The original Bad Boys of Abridgment squished all 37 plays, plus a few sonnets to boot, into a 90-minute time-lapse performance of some of the greatest theatre of all time. This season, Jobsite dusts off the Chuck Taylors, dons the doublets and delivers a fair number of pratfalls, terrible puns, mis-readings and madcap capers for this chaotic, comprehensive dash through The Bard’s greatest hits. Pre-show lecture by David Jenkins, artistic director of Jobsite and one of the three performers of the production.
Fee: $31.50 * Sun., 3/24 * 3:00 p.m. pre-show lecture, 4:00 p.m. curtain * Shimberg Theater * STRAZ-David A Straz Jr. Center for the Performing Arts * 192XOSTSE0971
REGISTRATION DEADLINE: February 1

Participants will have the opportunity to speak with guest conductor Gemma New in a Q & A format during the break or immediately following the rehearsal.

Memoir as Fiction
In this course, participants will be invited to think about their own memoirs by writing and sharing brief pieces in the style of several authors. Often these short pieces encourage writers to continue their reflections and to read further about the craft. Science Goes to the Movies
Are scientists depicted in film part of the “real world” or part of some other idealistic, altruistic, or Machiavellian reality? Are they inspirational visionaries absorbed with the drama of discovery? Or are they power seekers leading society toward death and destruction? Discuss these themes as you view movie clips. Ponder how societal fears about technology affect moviegoers’ perceptions, and how scientists actually practice their craft compared to how their activities are presented in film.
