DISMANTLING RACISM STUDY CIRCLES

Description: *This is a Six (6) Week Program meeting one day each week for 2 hours and the last week is dedicated to an ACTION GROUP PROJECT. A study circle is a small group, democratic, participant-driven discussion where people can express their views in a candid, safe environment. It explores the assumptions and values that underlie long-held beliefs. When the process works, participants can try on new ideas and understand better the views of those with whom they differ. They also come to better understand their own views.
