

Join us to celebrate the launch of

BLACK IMMIGRANT LITERACIES

Out
Nov 24

Dr. Patriann Smith
Author

"Patriann Smith offers educators a framework for working alongside all minoritized youth of color toward solidarity and racial justice."

--Allison Skerrett, UT Austin

"A must-read for educators who long for schooling that centers the assets of those who will help us realize a more just future."

--Kathleen A. Hinchman, Syracuse University

"You cannot leave Black Immigrant Literacies without new insights about the colonial entanglements of race, language, and identity."

--Patricia A. Edwards, Michigan State University

7
DECEMBER

TECO HALL
USF College of Education
Tampa Campus

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

5:00 Reception
in Rotunda

5:45 Author
Discussion

7:00 Book Signing

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA

David C. Anchin Center for the Advancement of Teaching
www.usf.edu/anchin @USFAnchin

RSVP at www.tinyurl.com/rsvpbil