I. PURPOSE & INTENT:

The purpose of this policy establishes that the University of South Florida intercollegiate athletics program be operated and administered at the Tampa campus and provides guidance for how students from the St. Petersburg and Sarasota-Manatee may participate in intercollegiate athletics.

II. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS:

“Intercollegiate Athletic Programs” shall refer to the university’s baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s and women’s cross country, football, men’s and women’s golf, men’s and women’s soccer, softball, women’s sailing, men’s and women’s tennis, men’s and women’s track and field, women’s volleyball programs that compete on behalf of the university at the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I level or compete in the Inter-collegiate Sailing Association (ICSA), as applicable.

“USF Athletics” shall refer to the University of South Florida Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

III. STATEMENT OF POLICY:

It is the policy of the university that USF Athletics be administered from the Tampa campus. Due to the location of university athletic facilities and student-athlete support services, all Intercollegiate Athletic Programs shall be operated at the Tampa campus with the exception of the women’s sailing program which shall be operated at the St. Petersburg campus.

Student-athletes may take courses at any university campus as they progress toward a degree. However, student-athletes who choose a home campus other than where their respective sport(s) is/are operated must make their own accommodations for transportation to the respective campus in order to participate in their sport(s). Other than transportation to campus, all student-athlete support services will be provided by USF Athletics.
