

LARRY HANDEN
MEMBER, BOARD OF ADVISORS

Larry Handen is a Senior Managing Director and the Global head of Macquarie Capital's Buyout Growth and Technology Group. He has more than 35 years of experience as a principal investor, operator, and consultant primarily in the field of technology, government and professional services.

During his career, Larry has been a principal investor in more than 175 transactions and served on the Board of Directors of more than 50 companies worldwide. Additionally, he has advised over 100 other companies in various capacities.

Prior to Macquarie, Larry Handen was a Managing Director at Insight Venture Partners. Prior to Insight, Mr. Handen was a General Partner at UBS Capital where he led the firm's Technology Group. Prior to that, he was a Partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers Consulting. While at PwC, Larry led a practice specializing in corporate-wide growth and recovery solutions for companies in the technology, information, communications, and entertainment industries.

Larry received a BA in Economics and Political Science from Bucknell University and an MBA from NYU's Stern School of Business