How to Raise/Lower the Bed

When you move in, ask your RA for assistance. Your RA will assist with entering a request for our facilities team to make the requested adjustments to your bed. Please be patient when making this request, as our team works to meet the needs of many residents during a short period of time.

How to Bunk the Bed

Residents living in Beta, Castor, and Maple can bunk their beds together. Ask your RA for assistance with entering a request for our facilities team to bunk your beds. Please be patient when making this request, as our team works to meet the needs of many residents during a short period of time.
