UPDATE/TRACK YOUR OFFICIAL EMPLOYEE DATA IN GEMS SELF-SERVICE

GEMS allows USF employees to review and, where appropriate, add, update, or delete their information online. Information that can be viewed and changed via GEMS includes:

- Leave Information
- Payroll and Compensation - including direct deposit & W-4
- Personal Information - including addresses, phone numbers and emergency contacts.
- Training and Development - view training summary and request training enrollments

View step-by-step instructions for accessing GEMS in the GEMS Self-Service Job Aid.

NOTE THE PAYROLL WEBSITE

Visit Payroll online at https://www.usf.edu/business-finance/controller/payroll/index.aspx

The University of South Florida pays on a bi-weekly payroll cycle. Each pay period begins on Friday and ends two weeks later on Thursday. You will be paid for that pay period one week later on Friday.

Section 110.113 of the Florida Statutes requires that all employees, except undergraduate work study students, are required to enroll in Direct Deposit as a condition of employment.

Enroll in Direct Deposit via Gems Self Service. Employees enrolled in Direct Deposit do not receive a printed paycheck, or a printed itemized pay statement. You may access your itemized payment statement in GEMS Self Service.

REVIEW PARKING OPTIONS

Permits are available by the academic year or semester and are prorated depending on the date of purchase. For permits purchased by early August for the new academic year, certain employees may qualify to opt for payments made through payroll deductions. To purchase your permit, view parking maps, and find more information on permit eligibility, cost, valid locations, restrictions, permit types or disabled parking information visit https://www.usf.edu/administrative-services/parking/

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Employee Relations (ER) provides education, training, mentoring and guidance to individual employees, supervisors, managers and administrators to address questions and workplace issues for non-faculty employees. HR Managers work with department administrators and individual employees on effective employee manager communications and provide individual coaching to improve employee performance and resolve conflicts and problems before the point of formal corrective action and grievance. HR Managers advise on and interpret university policies, procedures, regulations, labor contracts, and key state statutes and federal laws and oversee the university layoff, progressive discipline, performance improvement plan, and non-reappointment processes. For more information about Employee Relations, visit the website: https://www.usf.edu/hr/employment-resources/employee-labor-relations/index.aspx

For specific procedures, visit the Division of Human Resources website https://usfweb.usf.edu/human-resources/resources/procedures

USF Policies and regulations can by found by going to http://regulationspolicies.usf.edu/
Recognition is an important part of our culture at USF. While we believe in providing employees with regular feedback throughout their employment, we also believe in identifying those individuals who demonstrate excellence and a high level of performance that supports the overall values and standards of the University. For more information, please visit: http://www.usf.edu/hr-training/recognition-programs/index.aspx

Outstanding Staff Awards

Each year, the University hosts the Outstanding Staff Awards ceremony to recognize and celebrate those individuals who were nominated for outstanding job performance and selected to receive this most prestigious award.

Length of Service Recognition Program

USF’s Length of Service Recognition Program celebrates the long-term commitment of our employees to the University. Recognizing and supporting the contributions of our faculty and staff is a critical way of fulfilling our mission.

Each of our employees makes a difference and this is another way of saying “Thanks!”

The Quiet Quality Awards

The Quiet Quality Awards were implemented by the Staff Senate and are distributed on a monthly basis. All full-time staff members employed for six continuous months on a staff line are eligible. Each June, the Staff Senate sponsors an award reception to honor the Quiet Quality recipients for the year. The reception is attended by the recipients, nominations, department, and University leaders.
Employee Tuition Program

At USF, employees are encouraged to pursue continuous learning, including taking USF courses.
