Division of Human Resources

Common Hire Dates

December 2020 - June 2021

In light of the continuing concerns about COVID-19, USF Central Human Resources has transitioned the in-person "Welcome to USF" new employee orientation to a remote online format until further notice.

New employees should communicate with their supervisor on where to report on the first day. During their first week of employment, participants will receive an email communication from our Learning & Talent Development team with a link to the online new employee orientation module. They will also receive a communication from our Benefits team regarding important benefits information.
