

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA SYSTEM
Office of Research & Innovation

Guidelines for Ownership and Use of Research Cores and Core Equipment

In accordance with USF system regulations and policies, all equipment purchased in support of research is the property of the University of South Florida system and may be assigned to appropriate research cores.

Research instrumentation cores, and the expertise of the technical staff employed to operate the research core equipment, will be made available to all USF faculty, students, and staff.

External organizations may contract with the USF system through the Division of Sponsored Research to use USF research instrumentation cores.
