

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES for Expressive Activities

USF Supports the Free Exchange of Ideas and Encourages Civil Discourse

Know Your Rights

In accordance with the first amendment, all persons have a right to free expression of

RELIGION - SPEECH - PRESS - PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY

Plan Effectively

Contact the Event Support Team for assistance in planning your expressive activity

(813) 974-5009

The event planners can help you take steps to reduce major disruptions and allow your event to operate smoothly.

Know the Rules

Demonstrations or protests are not permitted to disrupt the university's academic mission, daily operations or scheduled events, FL 877.13

Know the Rules:

- Amplified sound is only allowed in certain areas and only with a reservation
- Activity cannot disrupt classes or university operations
- Entrances and egresses cannot be blocked
- Review USF Policy 6-028

Follow the Rules

Follow these rules to have a safe and effective event. Violators could be asked to leave or trespassed from campus. Students can be subject to disciplinary action by the Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.

For more information, contact the Dean of Students at (813) 974-6677

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA
TAMPA