<tr>
<td>Classes meet face-to-face (in person) at specified times and days</td>
<td>Hybrid (HB) courses include a blend of face-to-face (in person) meetings and online learning. Hybrid courses may be structured in a variety of ways. Instructors may split classes to alternate who attends in person on given days/times. Some may have all registered students meet together less frequently. When not attending in person, students may be required to attend synchronous live online meetings or be assigned independent learning activities.</td>
<td>Primarily Distance Learning have few face-to-face requirements. For example, exams, projects, presentations or site visits may be in person.</td>
<td>No required face-to-face (in person) meetings</td>

All students must comply with university policies and posted signs regarding COVID-19 mitigation measures, including wearing face coverings and maintaining social distancing.

Is my course Synchronous or Asynchronous?

- Synchronous: “live” online meetings during designated days & times
- Asynchronous: meetings are online only, no live day/time requirements

If your course has days/times listed in one of these formats, assume you have synchronous meetings during indicated periods.
